Photography

TI requests express permission from parents/carers for photography at events. A person will be appointed to take photos/film. Please do not take photos or videos of underage athletes. If you are taking photos of your business, please ensure there are no young people in the picture.

See our photography policy here.

Code of Conduct

Triathlon Ireland has a code of conduct that all attendees at junior events are expected to abide by. The key message is to understand we are trying to create a safe, young person centered environment.

External Contractors Code of Conduct

I understand there will be young people under the age of 18 at the Cork City Triathlon and there are Safeguarding policies in place to support their welfare.

I understand that in being part of this event I am subject to the points set out below and agree to comply fully with them.

I understand that any breach of this code of conduct could result in me being withdrawn from the Triathlon Ireland events and subject to disciplinary action from Triathlon Ireland which could jeopardise my future participation within the sport.

- I will respect and adhere to the no alcohol policy of the event and will not drink alcohol, smoke (cigarettes or e-cigarettes), use bad or offensive language or use inappropriate gestures in the presence of any young people at the Cork City Triathlon.

- I will not allow or make sexually suggestive comments to or about a child including innuendo, flirting or inappropriate gestures and terms.
- I will not post or share on social networking sites or websites images or text that is harmful, abusive or that is in breach of the relevant policies, procedures and guidance set out by Triathlon Ireland.
- I will ensure that any photographs I take of my business at the event will not have young people in the image.
- I will respect the differences between everyone at the event in terms of age, gender (including transgender), ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation or disability.
- If I witness, observe or hear of anything concerning in relation to a young person I will contact the Event Safeguarding Lead.
- I will fully uphold the policies and regulations of Triathlon Ireland and in relation to this event.
